Wisconsin Trale Wreckers.

INPECIAL TO THE WORLD, I
MILWAUEEE, Sept. 10.—It has been ascertained that an effort was made Wednesday night to wreck a Chicago and Northwestern train near North avenue, in the city imits. The engineer of the 11.15 o'cloca Fond du Lac freight train discovered a number of large boulders on the track, but slopped his train in time. A brakeman was ordered to rin on ahead and signal an approaching passenger train. He has not gone far when a number of alones were thrown at him. Detectives are now investigating what was evidently a plot to wreck a massenger train.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Illinois Central Trainmen's Committee called on the general managers to-day for the promised answer to their demand for an advance in wages. The confirmes will irobably last several day, and the ontlook is for a declaron adverse to the mes. No trouble is likely to result,
